A handwriting practice grid consisting of four vertical columns. The first column contains a large, light gray number '1' positioned between a solid top line and a dashed middle line. The second column is empty. The third column contains a large, light gray number '5' positioned between a solid top line and a dashed middle line. The fourth column is empty. There are four black rectangular markers: one at the top center, one at the bottom center, one on the left edge, and one on the right edge.
